However, the Douglas Housing Authority (HA) is committed to expanding and enhancing affordable housing opportunities for low-income residents whenever possible. During the next year the HA will also increase its efforts through community partnerships and other collaborative endeavors to provide educational and skills-building events and programs focused on economic independence for program participants and other low-income families.

- Encourage and promote self-sufficiency by adopting flexible income reporting requirements.
- Established local preferences to address affordable housing needs of seniors and the disabled.

C. Strategy for Addressing Needs

Provide a brief description of the PHA's strategy for addressing the housing needs of families in the jurisdiction and on the waiting list IN THE UPCOMING YEAR, and the Agency's reasons for choosing this strategy.

With the exception of voucher replacements for 57 expiring Mod Rehab units, the current number of Section 8 vouchers is not anticipated to increase over the next year, unless HUD, under its formula allocation method, makes additional units available to the Douglas jurisdiction.

As in most other communities, the need for affordable housing in Douglas far exceeds the supply. However, the Douglas Housing Authority (HA) is committed to expanding and enhancing affordable housing opportunities for low-income residents whenever possible. During the next year the HA will also increase its efforts through community partnerships and other collaborative endeavors to provide educational and skills-building events and programs focused on economic independence for program participants and other low-income families.

The Housing Authority mission and goals are closely linked to the larger community endeavor for community wellness and the revitalization and beautification of neighborhoods throughout the City. The Douglas Housing Authority with full endorsement from the Mayor and Council has firmly established a priority to increase and enhance the supply, availability and accessibility of affordable housing for low-income residents in the Douglas community.
